Who is Heather MacKenzie?

A committed social and environmental justice advocate.

She has worked and volunteered extensively for organizations such as Big Brothers Big Sisters and Engineers Without Borders.

For six years, Heather has run a fundraising initiative for a community run school in Zambia. This work has deepened her resolve to uphold a strong public education system in Edmonton.

Heather is a graduate of the Edmonton public school system. She completed undergraduate degrees in Sociology and History at the UofA, as well as a Masters in International Development at Dalhousie University.

What does Heather MacKenzie stand for?

She has been vocal in her opposition of the recent round of school closures. However, she is not a single-issue candidate.

Heather will work to ensure that community schools are a viable alternative in our district.

Heather is committed to better integrating wrap around services such as early childhood education and after school care.

Heather will engage the public, trustees, city council, administrators, and the provincial government in ongoing collaboration, thoughtful analysis and creative visioning.

Heather will advocate on behalf of residents of Ward E and on behalf of the Edmonton District as a whole.
